FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE September/October 2021

Community to Honor 96 Year-Old Holocaust Survivor

Israel 'Izzy' Arbeiter: An eyewitness to the horrors of Nazi concentration camps

Holocaust survivor Israel 'Izzy' Arbeiter, 96, an eyewitness to the horrors of Nazi concentration camps, will be honored during a virtual community event on October 6 at 7 pm. The event is free and open to all.

Izzy will receive the Stephan Ross Excellence in Holocaust Education Award, named for New England Holocaust Memorial Founder and lifelong friend Stephan Ross.

This Second Annual Tribute Event 'Voices from the Past... Lessons for the Future' is sponsored by the New England Friends of March of the Living (NEF MOTL), and honors the enduring impact of Israel 'Izzy' Arbeiter.' Visit <https://motnewengland.org/>

March of the Living annually brings over 10,000 high schoolers from 50 countries to Poland and Israel to study the history of the Holocaust and learn about roots of anti-Semitism and prejudice. NEF MOTL provides a $2,000 scholarship to high school juniors and seniors.

To 'attend' the Oct. 6 virtual, free tribute event, visit the <https://motnewengland.org/>. Advance registration is requested. For more information: tribute@motnewengland.org. NEF MOTL is a 501 C (3) charity.
