

Announcing Jerusalem: The Holy City's Development from Antiquity to Today – January 17, 2024

Dear Friends,

I am very pleased to announce the launch of Jerusalem: The Holy City's Development from Antiquity to Today, an online exploration of the growth of the city from its beginnings as a small town on a hillside to the modern city it is today.

The series will consist of four sessions that will run from February 2024 through May 2024. The first session, The Old City: Jerusalem in Antiquity, will be held on Wednesday, February 14 at 7:00 pm EST. Complete descriptions of each session along with registration links are found on our website (walnutstreetsynagogue.com/jerusalem-series). You will need to register for each session individually and we will send Zoom links a few days before each session. There is no charge.

Our speaker, Joel Haber, will be presenting this series live from his home in Jerusalem. Joel was born and raised in New Jersey and moved to Israel in 2009. He is a licensed tour guide, specializing in tours of his home city, and he also guides around the country. Some of you will remember Joel from our recent Taste of Jewish Culture series that attracted over 2,200 registrants from around the world.

This series is made possible by a grant from the Congregation Ahabat Shalom Religious Fund. Additional sponsorships are available (see our sponsorship form or event website).

Please join us. I hope to see you online for this exciting program!

L'Shalom,

Edward Medros
