Our series begins with an examination of the first stage of the city's development. We will discover the topography of the city, what the location offered in antiquity, and how the city grew from a small town on a hillside to a fortified (but still small) city for the bulk of its history.

Jews on the Silver Screen

Part 6 – Spielberg before Schindler: How Jewish? – Tuesday, February 13, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Part 7 – Jewish Women in Movies – Tuesday, February 20, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Part 8 – Visible and Invisible Jewishness – Tuesday, February 27, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Over eight enlightening weeks, we delve into the tapestry of Jewish representation, both overt and subtle, in Hollywood's history. From the pioneering Jewish visionaries who shaped global cinema to the enduring fascination with biblical narratives and the layers they hold, we uncover the intersections of culture and storytelling. We also confront and deconstruct stereotypes through the lens of Jewish gangsters and explore how cinema has exposed and healed societal ills. As we transition to adaptations of literature and the works of renowned directors like Steven Spielberg, we question the Jewish elements that lie beneath the surface. At the end of the series, we spotlight the roles of Jewish women in the industry and explore both the visible and invisible aspects of Jewishness in film, from unspoken identities to bold declarations.

Exile and Home: Tales of Traveling Rabbis

Part 2 - Wednesday, February 14, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Part 3 - Wednesday, February 28, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Part 4 - Wednesday, March 6, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Why does a great rabbi return to the town that had banished him? Who is the immigrant rabbi cruelly humiliated by his new havruta? And what happens when a man from Babylon marries a woman from Israel? The Talmud is riddled with travel narratives, stories of rabbis who leave their former lives behind and set out into the unknown, disoriented in unfamiliar territory, disparaged by unfriendly locals. This course looks at four such narratives, exploring the trials and tribulations of the traveling rabbis, and the lessons they must learn before they can arrive at their destination.

Gila Fine is a teacher of Aggada at the Pardes Institute of Jewish Studies, exploring the tales of the Talmud through philosophy, literary criticism, psychoanalysis, and pop-culture. She is also a faculty member of the London School of Jewish studies, the Nachshon Project, and Amudim Seminary, and has taught thousands of students at conferences and communities across the Jewish world. Gila's dynamic literary method and unique intertextual approach, ranging from folktales to fiction to film, bring the stories of the Talmud to life, revealing their relevance for our time. Haaretz has called her "a young woman on her way to becoming one of the more outstanding Jewish thinkers of the next generation."
