FOUR LESSER KNOWN AMERICAN JEWISH COMMUNITIES

Our new live virtual travel series, Four Lesser Known American Jewish Communities, returns this Wednesday evening!

Join us for the fourth session in our series on Wednesday, February 15 at 7:00 pm EST when we will continue to enjoy some warmth and travel east to Puerto Rico! We will learn how a few families in Ceiba, connected by shared customs and a profound spiritual bond to Torah, came together to reclaim their Jewish identity. This effort laid the foundation for a thriving Anusim community dedicated to self-education and a deep passion for Jewish learning. Our guide, Ernesto Rivera Pardo, returned to his native island to continue his dedication as the leader of Abraham Shalom Synagogue in Ceiba. Ernesto's journey reflects a profound commitment to preserving and celebrating Jewish heritage, and his efforts are making a significant impact on the cultural and spiritual landscape of Puerto Rico. Register here - <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/four-lesser-known-american-jewish-communities-puerto-rico-tickets-1062691812819?aff=oddtcreator>

Session 17 – Jewish Tombs and Burial Customs in Jerusalem - Wednesday, February 19, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Session 18 – Ossuaries and Burial Customs - Friday, February 21, 1:00 pm EST (online)
Session 19 – The Bar Kokhba Revolt - Monday, February 24, 1:00 pm EST (online)
Session 20 – Aelia Capitolina (Roman Jerusalem) - Wednesday, February 26, 1:00 pm EST (online)
Session 21 – The Byzantine and Early Islamic Periods - Friday, February 28, 1:00 pm EST (online)
(online)

Join Professor Jodi Magness, a renowned archaeologist and Kenan Distinguished Professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, in a fascinating lecture series exploring the rich history of the Holy Land from 586 BCE to 640 CE. This course covers pivotal events from the rise of Jerusalem under King David to the Muslim conquest, including the Hasmonean revolt, the grandeur of Herod's palaces, and the Roman siege of Masada. Participants will gain deep insights into archaeological methods, discover significant tombs and burial practices, and explore how ancient texts shape our understanding of the past. Professor Magness brings her extensive expertise, as demonstrated in her award-winning books and numerous excavations in Israel, to provide a comprehensive view of how ancient Jews lived, worshiped, and interacted with surrounding empires. This program is fully funded by a grant from the Jewish Community Foundation Orange County.

Session 13 – Herodian Period: Development of Jerusalem - Delve into Herod's ambitious architectural projects, including the massive reconstruction of the Second Temple and other significant infrastructural developments in Jerusalem.

Session 14 – Herodian Period: Caesarea, Herodium - Explore Herod's other key constructions: Caesarea Maritima as a major port and administrative center, and Herodium as his lavish fortress and final resting place.

Session 15 – Masada: Herod's Palaces - Examine the palatial fortifications and the complex water system on Masada, highlighting its strategic importance and Herod's architectural ingenuity.

Session 16 – Masada: The Roman Siege - Discuss the dramatic siege of Masada by Roman forces post-First Jewish Revolt, including the archaeological evidence and the historical narrative of mass suicide described by Josephus.

Session 17 – Jewish Tombs and Burial Customs in Jerusalem - Focus on Jewish funerary practices in the Herodian period, including rock-cut tombs, burial customs, and the theological implications of these practices.

Session 18 – Ossuaries and Burial Customs - Continue the discussion on burial customs with a focus on ossuaries, exploring their inscriptions and artistic decorations, and how these relate to the burial of historical figures like Jesus.

Session 19 – The Bar Kokhba Revolt - Survey the archaeological remains and the historical context of the Bar Kokhba Revolt, examining artifacts left by Jewish families who sought refuge in the Judean Desert caves.

Session 20 – Aelia Capitolina (Roman Jerusalem) - Examine the transformation of Jerusalem into the Roman city of Aelia Capitolina under Emperor Hadrian, focusing on urban design, architecture, and the suppression of Jewish religious and cultural identities.

Session 21 – The Byzantine and Early Islamic Periods - We wrap up our scholar-in-residence series with an exploration of Jerusalem under Byzantine and early Islamic rule, emphasizing the construction of significant Christian and Islamic religious structures, including the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, and discussing the broader geopolitical shifts during this period.

The Great War – How World War I Shaped the Modern World

Session 4 – Germany Rolls the Dice - Sunday, February 23, 1:00 pm EST (online)

Join us for an exclusive CSP four-part series with Professor Stephen M. Berk as we delve into the transformative impact of World War I – The Great War. This seminal event of the 20th century reshaped nations, ideologies, and societies, influencing everything from the rise of Lenin, Mussolini, and Hitler to the global movements for decolonization, women's rights, and American isolationism. Each session will focus on a pivotal aspect of the war. A distinguished historian and CSP's 10th Annual Scholar in Residence, Professor Berk brings unparalleled insight and expertise to this exploration of history that continues to shape our world.

Session 4 – Germany Rolls the Dice - We will examine the diplomacy of war and peace.

Stephen M. Berk, who served as CSP's 10th Annual One Month Scholar in Residence in February 2011, is Professor of History at Union College in Schenectady, New York, former Chair of the Department of History, Director of the Program in Russian and Eastern European Studies and Faculty Advisor to the Jewish Student Organization. He is the author of Year of Crisis, Year of Hope: Russian Jewry and the Pogroms of 1881-1882 (Greenwood Press, 1985). He is currently writing a book titled Our People Are

Your People: American Jewry and the Struggle for Civil Rights 1954-1965. The book provides an interesting discussion of an extremely important chapter in the history of the civil rights movement and attempts to dispel the myths and misunderstandings surrounding the Black-Jewish relationship. A recipient of the Citizens Laureate Award of the University of Albany Foundation, Professor Berk has been a consultant to the Wiesenthal Holocaust Center in Los Angeles, has written articles on Russian and Jewish history, antisemitism, and the Middle East and has lectured on throughout the United States and Canada including such distinguished colleges and universities as Princeton, Vanderbilt, The University of Texas at Austin and Williams College.

Matanot LaEyonim – Gifts for People in Need

The Walnut Street Synagogue is pleased to be participating again this year in Yad Chessed's Purim Campaign. From now until Purim Day (11:00 am on Friday, March 14), you can donate tzedakah to Yad Chessed to fulfill the Purim mitzvah of Matanot LaEvyonim. For over 35 years Yad Chessed, has worked to address the needs of Jews in Greater Boston and beyond who struggle with financial and food insecurity. With the support of donors and partner organizations, Yad Chessed's team of social workers provides swift emergency financial assistance, grocery gift cards, and compassionate care, advice, and referrals to those in need. Yad Chessed aids more than 2,000 Jewish individuals across Massachusetts annually. The mitzvah of Matanot LaEvyonim is central to the spirit of Purim and reminds us that we are obligated to offer a helping hand to those in our midst who need it most. Yad Chessed will use donations raised to fund vouchers that can be used on Purim Day so our neighbors in need can purchase food and celebrate the holiday.

Donate online here - <https://givebutter.com/YadChessedPurim2025>
