

Yom HaShoah — Boston's Community Holocaust Commemoration

SUNDAY, APRIL 27 at 10:30 AM
The State Room (60 State Street), Boston

Yom HaShoah marks the commemoration of the six million Jews murdered during the Holocaust. It is our sacred duty to maintain public consciousness and to honor those who were killed, the survivors, and their families. Yom HaShoah compels us to speak out against rising extremism and antisemitism in all forms whenever and wherever it occurs.

Join the Greater Boston community in remembering, reflecting, and ensuring that the lessons of history echo through the generations.

Please register in advance at jrcrboston.org/yh2025register.

Closed captions will be available in English and Russian.

For assistance or additional information, please contact us at info@jrcrboston.org.

This event is brought to you through the support of many valued partners, including:

